Applicant Self-Service

Thank you for your interest in CSULB! Now that you have submitted your application, we recommend you use our applicant self-service to check your status online. During peak admission cycles, using this service will allow admission staff to concentrate on making admission decisions while keeping you informed on what your application status is.

Please remember to try a different browser if you are having trouble with the link below. You may also always call the IT HelpDesk at 562-985-4959 or email them at helpdesk@csulb.edu if you continue having trouble with this service.

STEP 1: Begin by going to Applicant Self-Service here:
http://web.csulb.edu/depts/enrollment/admissions/applicants.html

Step 2: Before checking your status, we recommend that you verify your email address by clicking on the "Verify/Change My Email Address" link. Make sure you have your CSULB ID ready and available.

Step 3: Click on Continue

Manage Preferred Email Address - Applicants Only

Use this page if you have applied to CSULB and you have not yet been notified that you have access to MyCSULB. CSULB applicants must keep their current email address on file, as the university uses email as an official means of communication.
